The Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act and Common Law from the Land and Soil
Jurisdiction through - The People's Court - Date: _____ - In Gods Sight:

Administration of The Oath

"Members of the Grand Jury, you have volunteered to be Grand Jurors in accordance with The Peoples Court, Common Law and from The Land and Soil Jurisdiction. The responsibilities placed upon you are solemn and significant. You are entrusted with the duty to fairly and impartially review evidence and determine whether probable cause exists to issue a Formal Indictment to the alleged defendants named on this form, and safeguard the principles of justice in this nation through the free will good faith participation with this Grand Jury Indictment for the restoration of Justice in a peaceful and safe manner.

Grand Jury Oath

I do solemnly affirm that I will diligently and impartially inquire into all matters that come before this Grand Jury, according to the best of my knowledge and ability.

I will uphold the principles of justice as all are equal before the Law, ensuring that no individual is wrongfully accused and that all evidence is fairly considered.

I am of sound mind and reason, and participate from free will in good faith, to render my decisions based upon lawful due process regarding the evidence presented, and with my best judgment, free from bias, fear, or favour. I will neither indict any person through malice nor fail to indict through undue influence or fear.

I will faithfully discharging my duties as a Grand Juror to the best of my ability, so help me God and under the penalties of perjury."
